

Slovenská etnológia/Slovak ethnology

The course is being taught in English. Students will gain an overview of the history, theories and methodology, and especially the thematic division of scientific knowledge of ethnology. Course deals with the topics such as history of ethnology in Slovakia, migrations and ethnic history of Slovakia. The concept of traditional culture is being explained on the case of Slovakia in European context. Specific topics of interest are food and eating, folk costumes and clothing, village community and family life, rituals and folklore.